29th March 1827

Sir, I have received yours (letter) but as Mr Stewart has not yet reached this County (in Wales) I can say nothing as to your continuing at the Hollings Farm. I will however allow you to Plough and sow the two fields called Wheat halls agreeable to the custom of the country on condition that you shall be paid for your seed and labour provided Mr Stewart shall not consider to allow you to continue the farm.

Henry Hall
Hollings

PS You may also turn your stock upon the grazing for the same such sum as shall be considered right by Mr Bennet Towers of Rimington.

Bramham Park 9th August 1827

Mr Hall

I am much surprised to hear that you have not removed all your furniture out of the house at Hollings and would recommend if you expect any further countenance from Mr Fox that you do so immediately as if not I shall be under the painful necessity of compelling you to do so and you are fully aware it is not Mr Fox's intention to injure you in anyway, provided you act accordingly to your promise. It appears also that you still have stock upon the land. You are aware that we can charge you what price we please for this and therefore I recommend that you do not persist in this but find another place for them and by acting as herein direct you will much oblige.

Your most obedient servant

Thomas Kell

Smith,

I will thank you to go to the Hollings immediately on receipt of this letter and gain possession of the Farm to Mr Tenant for Messrs Tomkinson and Heyes.

You will also remove the people out of the house and if necessary assist them away with their furniture.
